

HEAD QUARTERS DEPT NO. 2,

CHATTANOOGA, August 8th, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 109.

I. Until otherwise ordered the Forces in this Department, when taking the field, will be provided with the following :

MEANS OF TRANSPORTATION.

- 1 wagon for Cooking Utensils &c., for 100 men.
- 1 " " Extra Ammunition for 400 men.
- 1 " " Each Regimental Headquarters.
- 1 Ambulance or light two-horse wagon for 300 men.
- 1 Wagon each for Brigade and Division Headquarters.
- 2 " Headquarters Army Corps.

CAMP EQUIPAGE.

- 1 Tent to each Regiment for Medical Department.
- 1 " " Regimental Headquarters.
- 2 " " Brigade Headquarters.
- 2 " " Division Headquarters.
- 6 Tent-flies for every 100 men.

AMMUNITION.

- 100 Rounds of Ammunition of proper description for all small arms.
- A full supply for the Artillery, and
- 100 Rounds for Infantry, and
- 50 Rounds for the Artillery, extra to be transported by the ordnance train.

II. All surplus wagons and teams and other means of transportation not prescribed in the first paragraph of these orders, will be turned in immediately to the Quartermaster's Department.

III. All surplus Tents will be transferred to the Division Quartermasters to be turned in to the nearest Depot Quartermaster, or for disposition by the Chief Quartermaster of the Forces.

IV. Division and Brigade Commanders will be held responsible for the prompt and faithful execution of the foregoing orders. They will have a thorough inspection made before taking the field, of every regiment, company and man to see that these and previous orders fixing the marching outfit of officers and soldiers are complied with.

V. All Quartermasters will be required on the march, to remain habitually with the rear of their trains, unless specially detached, moving promptly along to the front whenever the train is interrupted, to ascertain and correct the difficulty, if in their trains.

By command of GENERAL BRAGG.

THOMAS JORDAN,
Chief of Staff.

Official
Wm. D. Carter
Ch. S. G. (Aug 12)

20 Sept 1901
General Order 1901

Putnam Aug 11th

Arranging for transportation to in the field.

II. All supplies wagons and teams and other means of transportation prescribed in the last paragraph of these orders will be turned in immediately to the Quartermaster's Department.
III. All supplies Teams will be turned to the nearest Depot Quartermaster, or for disposition to be turned to the nearest Depot Quartermaster, or for disposition to the Chief Quartermaster of the Force.
IV. Division and Brigade Commanders will be held responsible for prompt and faithful execution of the foregoing orders. They will have thorough inspection made before taking the fall of every regiment, company and man to see that these and previous orders being the march of all officers and soldiers are complied with.
All Quartermasters will be required on the march, to remain in the rear of their units, unless specially detached, moving promptly to the front whenever the train is interrupted, to ascertain and correct the difficulty, if in their train.

By command of General Bragg.
THOMAS JORDAN,
Chief of Staff